HAPPY BUCKS

Peter Krulder was happy that the construction has started on the visitors center. Ray Kingsbury is restoring his BMW; Jeff Rhoads had a buck for the Mardi Gras tonight in Dunedin; Carl Keltner for the get well card which was circulating for Mamie Harrison, who fell in her driveway, and Tom Anderson who is running for re-election; Pat Bauer said that the Library received a large sum of money as a contribution which will buy 8-10 new books; and Jonathan Skinner just returned from an intriguing trip in New Orleans.

Paul Schlosberg, PDG, made a presentation for Paul Harris Society members from our club (the most in the district) to Sara Kessinger, Helen Gleason & Carole Ketterhagen.

Jack Bakeman announced that the Paul Harris Foundation drawing is coming soon. .If a member gives $250 + $250 (from club match) = $500 + $500 (match from district) = $1000 which is a PHF. All for $250.

Lynn Smeraldo said that the Dunedin North club matched our Interact funds & presented a check for $750.

Pete Krulder said Honeymoon Island State Park won the National Recreation Parks Gold Metal again for 2005,
